Luebeck marzipan raw mass

Premium quality marzipan raw mass with high content of finest Mediterranean almonds

Origin

Origin of the almonds: small plantations (selected provenances) in the Mediterranean.

Pleasant and intensive almond flavour due to the mild climate and sustainable way of cultivation in natural and wild surroundings.

Manufacturing Process

Manufacturing Process: roasted in authentic open copper roasting pans and traditionally finely rolled between contra-rotating granite rollers. No extra powder sugar added.

Applications

Directly applicable for your creations such as chocolate centres, baked cakes and desserts.

Art. No. KK05E
